

The project “Educational Space Flight –Violence – Gender”

With our Educational Space we would like to delve into the topic of the flight and migration of countless women from different parts of the world who have fled and have to flee wars, catastrophes, and political repression in the past and present.

With our Educational Space we want to make the flight and migration of innumerable women* in the past centuries as well as at present the topic, who had to and must flee from and because of wars, catastrophes and political repression.

The Education Space is a scientific teaching space to impart knowledge to BUW members and the general public on the connections between violence, flight, and gender.

The Education Space is a scientific teaching space to impart knowledge about the connections between violence, flight and gender to members of BUW as well as to a broader public.

You can find more information on our webpage:

We are looking for..

In particular, women* who wish to shape this educational space within the context of flight, violence and gender as well as migration and racism.

Women* who would like to shape this educational space through their knowledge, experiences and ideas on the nexus of flight, violence and gender as well as migration and racism.

We accept all women* applicants, regardless of refugee experience or migration history.

The call is addressed to women* with and without refugee experience as well as with and without migration history.

What you bring to the table:

We welcome your suggestions for events related to the given topic: lectures, readings, storytelling, theater performances, music performances, conversation cafés, etc. - there are many possibilities!

You propose an event on the named topic: it can be a lecture, a reading, a storytelling, a theater or music performance, conversation cafés etc. many things are possible and we look forward to your suggestions!

As the event leader, you will be responsible for leading and executing your event, and we will be there to advise and support you.

You will be responsible for leading and carrying out your event, and we will be there to advise and support you.

Our offers

You will receive a honorary fee (the amount depends on the event you want to organize and on your personal/employment situation)

Furthermore we can organize childcare, provide rooms or help with the promotion of the event, e.g. design and printing of flyers etc.. In addition, we will document each event on our website.

How to apply?

Please send us your application in the form of a PDF-Document in which you introduce yourself and your idea (1-2 pages). A Curriculum Vitae, certificates etc. are not necessary. The events should take place next year, please also indicate when would be a good time for you to hold it.

Please send us your application by the end of December.

Contact address:

Bildungsraum@lists.uni-wuppertal.de